Everyone Has A Starting Point, This Is Ours...

We love what we do. We like to have fun. We think you do too.

We'll treat you like we'd like to be treated ourselves. Straight and simple. When it comes to the price of your home, there are no games, negotiations or headaches. We leave that to our competition.

We don't want you to live in a "base" home, "standard" home or "regular" home. Neither do you. We create inspired design, detailing every home with custom finishes which define our "Starting Point" price.

Relax! Have fun and create your own personal design for inspired living. And remember our Starting Point includes $40,000 to use as a credit towards features important to you, to create your Starting Point.

Every Starting Point price is based on our Formula for Inspired Living:
